

On May 17, 2018, over 700 representatives from the greater Austin area gathered at the AT&T Executive Education and Conference center for the 16th annual RecognizeGood Ethics in Business & Community Awards. With the objective of illuminating individuals, companies and non-profits who follow the business ethics of "Be Respectful * Be Fair * Be Honest * Strive For Justice* Embrace Sustainability.

Nominees in the following categories were recognized with short video clips before the winner in each category emboldened below, were announced:

INDIVIDUALS	Misti Potter, CEO of Boys & Girls Club of the Austin Area Steve Stapp, President and CEO of R Bank in Round Rock Amber Wakem, Founder of $tart-Up! Kid's Club
NON-PROFITS	Footprints Children's Grief Ministry Strider Safety Operations Survive2Thrive Foundation
SMALL BUSINESS	Corvalent Corporation Per Stirling Capital Management STRUB Residential
MID-SIZE BUSINESS	DoubleTree Hotel Austin Embree Group of Companies R Bank of Texas
LARGE BUSINESS	A+ Federal Credit Union Baylor Scott & White Health Texas Mutual Insurance

Footprints Children's Grief Ministry was honored to be one of the top three finalist in the non-profit category and expresses its appreciation to the entire RecognizeGood team for this valuable experience.

Attendees on behalf of Footprints are picture below, along with Concordia University Student, Justin Reeves, who worked with Footprints through the preliminary vetting process.

Pictured, back row, l – r, Larry Simmering, Treasurer; Paul Lake, President; Dr. Will Cotton, Board Member; Larry Terrell, VP Operations; Doug DuBois, Jr., VP Marketing.

Seated, l – r, Justin Reeves, Concordia University; Renee Lake, Volunteer; Charlene Terrell, Volunteer Coordinator; Rich Thompson, Chairman of the Board for Footprints.